Associate Installed as Director for CNY Women's Bar Association

SYRACUSE, August 21, 2008 — Deborah S. O'Malley, Esq., an associate at Gilberti Stinziano Heintz & Smith, P.C. has become the Memberships Director for the Central New York Women's Bar Association. O'Malley, whose law practice focuses on corporate and real estate matters, was installed with the other new officers and directors at an event held at the Everson Museum.

O'Malley recently relocated to Syracuse from Idaho and joined the CNYWBA to connect with attorneys here in Central New York. She decided to become an active member as a means of championing the rights of women through the law and to encourage equality in the profession. Gilberti Stinziano Heintz & Smith, P.C. encourages all of its attorneys to pursue their passions through community involvement and service.

"I'm excited about being elected to the Board," said O'Malley. "This is a great opportunity for me to reach out to other attorneys in the region and encourage them to get involved with this important organization."

Formed in 1980, the Central New York Women's Bar Association is a chapter of the Women's Bar Association of the State of New York. Their mission is to promote justice for all, regardless of sex; to advance the social, economic and legal status of women through the law; to expand opportunities for women and to raise the level of competence and integrity in the legal profession.

O'Malley looks forward to leading a successful membership drive.
