Biography

Dave has over 30 years of experience helping a wide array of clients, serving as both corporate counsel and transactional counsel to a broad and diverse group of entrepreneurs, startup and emerging ventures, middle-market companies, private equity and venture capital funds, investment banking firms, private investors, and public companies.

Dave draws on his decade of experience as a business executive and in-house general counsel when serving as corporate counsel to companies and entrepreneurs and as a counselor to the general counsels and law departments of his corporate clients.

In his business transactional practice, Dave focuses on business organization; capital formation and corporate finance; mergers and acquisitions; contracting and complex corporate transactions, including negotiation and documentation of diverse strategic alliances; joint ventures; and partnering relationships.

Dave's practice involves working with clients in a wide range of industries, including technology; business media, including meetings and events organizing and traditional and online marketing and media communications, such as print and digital publishing; hospitality and food services; manufacturing; and retail. He also represents issuers of securities and placement agents and venture capitalists and underwriters in both private and public offerings, and he counsels companies and their directors and officers on corporate governance matters and securities law compliance.
